

VI. ACCEPT THE INEVITABLE (Ecclesiastes 11:6)

“The promises of God are certain, but they do not all mature in 90 days.”

Adoniram J. Gordon

Workers of God will find their endeavors will stretch out over the entire day (morning, afternoon, and evening). Let us not limit the sowing and reaping time to the few hours of preparation and times of involvement with God’s people only on a given Sunday or midweek ministry. We need to see every day (every part of it) as an opportunity to sow and reap. The law of Sowing and Reaping is an established fact as true and the Law of Gravity.

“. . . and whoever sows generously will also reap generously.”

II Corinthians 9:6b

We all need to enjoy working for God in this present life even though we cannot determine what will be successful and what will not be. Let us not live a life of “might-have-beens.” We must enjoy the opportunities God has set before us whether they seem impossible or not. Remember that we serve the only God who can overcome the impossibilities of life.

C:\My Documents\WPWin(X7)\Sermons.2017\Evangelism\Ecclesiastes 1_1.6.wpd

Date: Jan 1/17

Place: FCA

Time: 10:30 Am

Song: To the Ends of the Earth - G